One country – one delegation

In case there is more than one karate organization in a particular country, the organizations are themselves responsible to agree amongst themselves to form one delegation to represent their country.

Other matters

Officially appointed tournament doctors and staff will be present to administer first aid should this be necessary. The doctors hold the decision-making authority to decide if any injured contestant can continue in the event or should withdraw. Furthermore, each contestant must carry certain health insurance and is responsible for his/her own health care and will have no claims to the tournament doctors.
