Competition system:

The competition system will be specified on Friday, February 9 according to the number of teams registered

Category men-women mixed team

- the match consists of five individual matches taking place in the following order and disciplines:

1st match: jiyu-kumite (ippon-shobu) men -regardless of weight, time 2 minutes

2nd match: jiyu-kumite (ippon-shobu) women - regardless of weight, time 2 minutes

3rd match: men's kata - (one drawn kata from the series Heian 1-5, Tekki 1, Bassai Dai, Kanku Dai, Jion, Empi)

4th match: jiyu-kumite (ippon-shobu) men - regardless of weight, time 2 minutes

5th match: women's kata - (one kata drawn from the series Heian 1-5, Tekki 1, Bassai Dai, Kanku Dai, Jion, Empi)

Note: You need two different competitors to fill both disciplines of kumite men, one competitor cannot compete twice in the discipline of kumite in one match. Same competitor can compete in one match 1x kumite and also kata. One woman in team can also compete in kata and kumite. If you want its also possible to bring more than 5 competitors and choose them differently for each match. You can also register more than one team (according to the number of your competitors).

- Competition decision-making and scoring system
- The competition is according to the rules of the JKA World Federation.
- The provisions of "sai shiai" and "sai sai shiai" do not apply, both the match and the match may end in a draw (hikiwake).
- For winning individual matches in the match, 2 auxiliary points are added to the total score in the match, for a draw 1 auxiliary point.
- The winner of the match will be the team that gets more assist points in individual matches. If the auxiliary points are equal, the match is declared a tie.
- In the overall table, the winning team will receive 2 points for winning the match, each team will receive 1 point for a tie in the match, and the ratio of all the auxiliary points obtained - the score - will be entered for the subsequent determination of the overall standings.
